Wilmington Bank Rates of Exchange. Baltimore 1 per cent. | Philadelphia 1 per cent Virginia New York1 65 56 Charleston REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING FEBRUARY 26, 1852. REMARKS .- The water courses continue low, very low for the season, and the River boats find difficulty in navigation between this place and Fayetteville. But little produce has arrived during the week, scarcely any from above tide-way. The principal portion of the receipts have been per Railroad. BACON.-The stock of N. C. bacon is rather light for the and 10 a 10 per lb. for hog round. We note a wagon load cited Act.

The stock of old Western Bacon has been materially reduced, there being but little now on the market. BEEF CATTLE .- The stock in butcher's hands is about fair, and quotations for a prime article rule at $6 50 per 100 lbs.

nett. 2nd quality at about 5 a 51 cents per lb. PORK.-Fresh.-The season is about over for bringing in fresh pork. A few small lots, however, continue to come in, and sell at about 71 cents per lb. Mess Pork is selling from store at $18 00 per bbl., in quantity to suit. Conn.-Some 2 a 3000 bushels have been disposed of from ressel during the week at 63 cts. by the cargo, and 65 cents per bushel, in lots to suit buyers. COFFEE. - See table for quotations, for sales in lots to suit, Eggs-are selling from carts at retail, from 124 to 14 cts. per dozen.

HAY .- The stock on hand is light, and we hear of no sales from vessel. Dealers are selling from store at $1 to $1 25 LARD .- Sales of North Carolina lard are made occasionally in the small way at quotations. See table. LIME.-None received this week. Stock light. LUMBER .- No sales-2 rafts river lumber has been landed for want of a purchaser.

Molasses .- No receipts this week, and none in first hands. NAVAL STORES .- The turpentine market has ruled geneally firm at quotations of this day week. We note sales footing up about 2233 bbls., at $2 35 for soft and 1 45 a 1 50 for hard. The highest price paid for the hard article is confined to dry lots, and the lowest for water lots. The market The stock of both is very light. In tar the transactions have been about 254 barrels, during the week, at $1 25 per bbl. firm at quotations, as to quality. See table. A small lot of their friends and the public generally. Their store is No. 3 North Water Street, Dickinson's Fire-proof building, Wilcow peas per Railroad has been taken at 80c. per bushel. POTATOES.-Irish planting potatoes are scarce, and are reniling from store at $4 per bbl. Sweet potatoes command from 50 to 60 cents per bushel, in quantity to suit, as they RICE .- We hear of no wholesale transactions in this article, and our figures must be considered as merely nominal. SALT .- None received since last weekly report.

SHINGLES .- The demand for shingles has subsided, and it s with great difficulty a purchaser can now be found. We to a cole in first part of the week at $3 per M, and a small lot to-day at $2 per M. STAVES .- White oak barrel staves are in demand, and none arriving. TIMBER .- Some 10 a 12 rafts mill timber have changed quotations. See table. FREIGHTS-Are without change, and we continue former notations. See table. EXCHANGE-Firm. See table. NEWBERN, Feb. 23.—Turpentine.—Dip $2 40 a $2 50; scrape $1 60. Corn 55 a 56c. per bushel. Meal 70c. Clay
